MEDIA RELEASE

19 June 2014

MONICANS SHINE IN GOLDEN JUBILEE EXTRAVAGANZA

St Monica's College Epping has continued to celebrate the College's Golden Jubilee with an entertainment extravaganza held at the Plenty Ranges Arts and Convention Centre in South Morang on 20 and 21 June.

Three performances showcased the talents of past and present students and staff in a variety show that highlighted the strong performing arts culture of the College since 1964.

Mr Brian Hanley, College Principal, applauded the cast and crew. "This is an amazing showcase of talent that covers the fifty years St Monica's College has been functioning in Epping. Our Golden Jubilee year is marked by a series of events that will celebrate our College's wonderful achievements. This marvellous coming together of more than 100 Monicans is one of the highlights."

St Monica's is currently the regional College for the Parishes of St Peter's, Epping; St Luke's, Lalor; St Clare's, West Thomastown; St Stephen's, East Reservoir; Holy Name, East Preston; St Francis of Assisi, Mill Park and St Mary of the Cross MacKillop, Epping North. St Joseph the Worker, North Reservoir and St Gabriel's, Reservoir are also Priority Parishes for the College.
