MEDIA RELEASE

5 March 2014

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY AT ST MONICA'S COLLEGE EPPING

St Monica's College Epping will celebrate International Women's Day with a breakfast to fundraise for the Cancer Council. The breakfast is an annual event and will be attended by more than 100 WOMEN.

Special guests will include the State Member for Mill Park, Lily D'Ambrosio; Mayor of the City of Whittlesea, Cr Mary Laliotis; and fellow councillor Kris Pavlidis, as well as past and present staff, students and friends of St Monica's College.

The guests will be addressed by Ms Bernadette Zappa. Bernadette is a volunteer for the Community Speakers program with the Cancer Council and has been trained to present in the area of cancer prevention. Bernadette is a qualified Occupational Therapist and works at Eastern Health as a Project Officer for Cancer Services where she is responsible for the Cancer Supportive Care Screening Project.

Her particular interest in cancer care is the psychosocial impact of a cancer diagnosis and how the health care system and broader community can best respond to the supportive care needs of people diagnosed with cancer.

The breakfast will be supported by Year 11 Hospitality students and female members of the Student Representative Council. Entertainment will be provided by College Captain, Brooke Kotsos, a talented singer who has been involved in many College and external productions.

Media invited to attend.
