MEDIA RELEASE

19 May 2015

TANYA PLIBERSEK TO VISIT ST MONICA'S COLLEGE EPPING

The Hon Tanya Plibersek MP will address 30 students at St Monica's College Epping this Friday. Ms Plibersek is the Deputy Leader of the Federal Opposition and Shadow Minister for Foreign Affairs and International Development.

St Monica's College Epping Deputy Principal, Miss Paula Di Maria, said it will be an honour to welcome Ms Plibersek to the College. "Our Global Politics students will relish the opportunity to talk to such an experienced politician who has a broad awareness of the changing world. The opportunity for students to ask Ms Plibersek questions regarding both Australian and world politics will provide them with an invaluable experience. We are very pleased to be able to welcome Ms Plibersek to St Monica's College Epping."

The group of students are from Years 10 to 12.

Ms Plibersek will be accompanied by the Member for Scullin, Mr Andrew Giles MP.
